1.10 “Third Party Addressee(s)” means persons who were addressees of the Decision but who are not Parties to these proceedings, and from whom the European Commission obtained confidential information for the purpose of its investigation.

2. INNER CONFIDENTIALITY RING INFORMATION

When Inner Confidentiality Ring Information is disclosed in the context of these proceedings, it is to be provided or made available solely to the Inner Confidentiality Ring Members, to be held by them on the terms set out in Part C of the Schedule to this Order, subject to the following paragraphs of this Order.

3. OUTER CONFIDENTIALITY RING INFORMATION

When Outer Confidentiality Ring Information is disclosed in the context of these proceedings, it is to be provided or made available solely to the Outer Confidentiality Ring Members, to be held by them on the terms set out in:

3.1 if the individual is also an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member, Part C of the Schedule to this Order, subject to the following paragraphs of this Order; or

3.2 if the individual is not also an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member, Part D of the Schedule to this Order, subject to the following paragraphs of this Order.

4. SCOPE OF THE ORDER

Nothing in this Order or in its Schedules applies to documents and/or information received by a Party other than via these proceedings under the terms of this Order.

5. ADDITIONS TO, OR REMOVAL FROM, THE INNER OR OUTER CONFIDENTIALITY RING

5.1 If a Party (the “Proposing Party”) wishes to add an additional person as an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member or as an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member:

5.1.1 The Proposing Party shall notify the other Parties in writing specifying the name and role of the proposed additional person and providing an explanation of why the addition is reasonable and necessary and request the express written consent of the other Parties, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

5.1.2 Following receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph 5.1.1, if any Party objects to the proposed addition to the Confidentiality Ring, they shall notify the Proposing Party in writing within 7 days that they so object, giving reasons for the objection.

5.1.3 On the sooner of express consent being provided in accordance with paragraph 5.1.1 above and/or no such objections being received within the 7-day period under paragraph 5.1.2 above:

5.1.3.1 the additional person will be required to give the written undertaking to the Tribunal in the terms of Part C or D (as applicable) of the Schedule to this Order; and

5.1.3.2 the Proposing Party concerned will provide the written undertaking referred to in paragraph 5.1.3.1 above and an amended and dated version of Part A or B (as appropriate) of the Schedule to this Order to the Tribunal and the other Parties.

5.1.4 Upon those steps being completed, the additional person will become an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member and/or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member (as applicable).

5.1.5 If any objection referred to in paragraph 5.1.2 above is received within the 7 day period there referred to, the Proposing Party may apply to the Tribunal and give notice of such application to the other Parties and the additional person will become an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member (as applicable) if the Tribunal so orders.

- 5.2 If a Party wishes to remove a person as an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member, that Party shall notify the other Parties and provide an amended version of Part A or B (as appropriate) of the Schedule to this Order to the Tribunal and the other Parties. The Party must also (so far as it is able to do so and it is technically possible) destroy, or procure that the removed person destroys, any copies of Confidential Information held by that person pursuant to this Order (in both hard and soft copy) or transfer such copies to persons who remain within the relevant Confidentiality Ring. For the avoidance of any doubt, a Party may only remove a person whom it had (initially or by following the process in paragraph 5.1) proposed as an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member.
- 5.3 For the avoidance of doubt, a person who ceases to be an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member and/or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member remains bound by the terms of the undertaking they have signed in relation to Confidential Information they received before they ceased to be an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member or an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member.
- 5.4 If a Party ceases to be involved in these proceedings, the persons nominated by that Party as Confidentiality Ring Members shall automatically cease to be Confidentiality Ring Members.

6. DESIGNATION OF DOCUMENTS/INFORMATION

- 6.1 This paragraph does not apply to Confidential Commission Documents or the Decision.
- 6.2 A Party disclosing a document/information in connection with these proceedings (other than a Confidential Commission Document or the Decision) may designate that the document/information is: (i) Inner Confidentiality Ring Information; (ii) Outer Confidentiality Ring Information; or (iii) not confidential.
- 6.3 Designation of a document as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information or Outer Confidentiality Ring Information must be made in writing to the Party or Parties receiving the document/information. At the same time as providing the disclosure, the Party providing it must, either in respect of each document or, if appropriate, in respect of categories of documents, set out a sufficient explanation to enable any opposing Party to understand the confidentiality that has been claimed and to challenge the confidential treatment of that information.

6.4 Any document/information that is not designated as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information or Outer Confidentiality Ring Information is not Confidential Information.

6.5 Failure to provide a designation for a document/information (other than a Confidential Commission Document or the Decision) at the time the document/information is disclosed shall be deemed to be a designation that the document in question is not Confidential Information. A Party may alter the designation of a document/information to correct any erroneous designation by notice in writing to all Parties that received such document/information. The other Parties shall not be responsible for any action taken in the meantime in good faith in reliance on the original designation.

6.6 A Party receiving disclosure of documents/information (other than a Confidential Commission Document or the Decision) in these proceedings may request that the disclosing Party or Parties amend the designation of a document/information that it has disclosed (including amendment to a designation of not confidential) as follows:

6.6.1 that requesting Party must provide a written request to the disclosing Party or Parties specifying the following:

6.6.1.1 the relevant document/information concerned;

6.6.1.2 the designation the requesting Party believes is appropriate;
and

6.6.1.3 why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the Confidentiality Ring Information to be amended.

6.6.2 The disclosing Party may consent in writing to amend the designation of the Confidentiality Ring Information, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 10 working days of having initially received the written notice referred to at paragraph 6.6.1 above. If no response is provided within 10 working days, consent shall be deemed to have been given.

6.6.3 Should an objection be received within the 10 working day period referred to in paragraph 6.6.2 above, the requesting Party may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the Confidentiality Ring Information should be designated as either: (i) Inner Confidentiality Ring Information; (ii) Outer Confidentiality Ring Information; or (iii) not confidential (as the requesting Party deems appropriate), provided that prior written notice is given of that application to the other Party or Parties.

7. PROVISION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION TO PERSONS OUTSIDE THE RINGS

7.1 This paragraph does not apply to Confidential Commission Documents or the Decision.

7.2 If the Party receiving disclosure of a document (other than a Confidential Commission Document or the Decision) considers that the document (for the avoidance of doubt, including a part thereof) needs to be shown to a person who is not a Confidentiality Ring Member, for the purposes of these proceedings:

7.2.1 that Party must provide a written request to the disclosing Party, setting out the following:

7.2.1.1 the document in question;

7.2.1.2 the person or persons to whom it is proposed that the document should be shown; and

7.2.1.3 why it is reasonable to show the document to that person or those persons;

7.2.2 the Party concerned may agree in writing that the document shall be shown to the additional person or persons concerned, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 10 days of having initially received the written notice referred to at paragraph 7.2.1 above. In the event that no response is given within that period, consent shall be deemed to have been given;

and

7.2.3 should an objection be received within the 10-day period referred to in paragraph 7.2.2 above, the Party who considers that the document should be shown to the further person or persons concerned may apply to the Tribunal for an order to that effect, provided that notice is given of that application to the other Party.

8. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL COMMISSION DOCUMENTS AND THE DECISION

8.1 Subject to the following paragraphs 8.2 and 8.3, the Decision and all Confidential Commission Documents disclosed in these proceedings shall, unless otherwise indicated by the disclosing party, be deemed to be designated as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information.

8.2 A Party disclosing Confidential Commission Documents shall indicate in writing that it is disclosing Confidential Commission Documents. Failure to comply with this paragraph does not alter the deemed designation of Confidential Commission Documents in accordance with paragraph 8.1.

8.3 If the Party receiving the Decision or a Confidential Commission Document in accordance with this Order considers that the Decision or Confidential Commission Document (for the avoidance of doubt, including a part thereof) needs to be shown to Outer Confidentiality Ring Members, or to any other person, for the purposes of these proceedings:

8.3.1 that Party must provide a written request to the Party or Third Party Addressee to which the document in question belongs, setting out the following:

8.3.1.1 the Decision or Confidential Commission Document in question;

8.3.1.2 the person or persons to whom it is proposed that the Decision or Confidential Commission Document should be shown; and

8.3.1.3 why it is reasonable to show the Decision or Confidential Commission Document to that person or those persons;

- 8.3.2 the Parties and/or Third Party Addressees concerned may agree in writing that the Decision or Confidential Commission Document shall be shown to the additional person or persons concerned, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 14 days of having initially received the written notice referred to at paragraph 8.3.1 above. In the event that no response is given within that period consent shall be deemed to have been given; and
 - 8.3.3 should an objection be received within the 14-day period referred to in paragraph 8.3.2 above, the Party who considers that the Decision or Confidential Commission Document should be shown to the further person or persons concerned may apply to the Tribunal for an order to that effect, provided that notice is given of that application to the other Party and/or Third Party Addressee to which the document in question belongs.
- 8.4 A Party receiving the Decision or a Confidential Commission Document in accordance with this Order in these proceedings may request that the disclosing Party or Parties or the relevant Third Party Addressee amend the designation of the Decision or a Confidential Commission Document that it has disclosed (including amendment to a designation of not confidential) as follows:
 - 8.4.1 the requesting Party must provide a written request to the disclosing Party or Parties or Third Party Addressee (copied to the other Parties) specifying the following:
 - 8.4.1.1 the relevant Decision or Confidential Commission Document concerned;
 - 8.4.1.2 the designation the requesting Party believes is appropriate; and
 - 8.4.1.3 why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the Decision or a Confidential Commission Document to be amended.
 - 8.4.2 The disclosing Party or Third Party Addressee may consent in writing to amend the designation of the Decision or a Confidential Commission

Document, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 10 working days of having initially received the written notice referred to at paragraph 8.4.1 above.

8.4.3 Should either an objection or no response be received within the 10 working day period referred to in paragraph 8.4.2 above, the requesting Party may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the Decision or Confidential Commission Document should be designated as either: (i) Outer Confidentiality Ring Information; or (ii) not confidential (as the requesting Party deems appropriate), provided that prior written notice is given of that application to the other Parties / Third Party Addressees.

9. COPIES OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

9.1 Subject to the exceptions in paragraph 9.2, each Party must destroy copies of Confidential Information provided pursuant to this Order (in both hard and soft copy) (insofar as technologically possible) or make them inaccessible at the conclusion of these proceedings, or when that Party ceases to be involved in these Proceedings, and at such time that Party shall notify its Inner Confidentiality Ring Member(s) and Outer Confidentiality Ring Member(s) that they must destroy (insofar as technologically possible) or make inaccessible all Confidential Information in their possession. (For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing obligations and the corresponding obligations of individuals pursuant to the undertakings in Part C and D of the Schedule, do not require a Party or person to take steps beyond selecting the files in question and providing the Windows command to "delete" such files, and repeating such instruction with the copy of the file in the Windows "recycle bin".) In such circumstances, each Party concerned shall notify the remaining Parties within a reasonable time that the Confidential Information has been destroyed (insofar as technologically possible) or made inaccessible (as appropriate).

9.2 The obligation in paragraph 9.1 is subject to the following exceptions:

9.2.1 Paragraph 9.1 does not apply to solicitors', counsel's or economists' notes.

9.2.2 Paragraph 9.1 does not create an obligation to search for transitory or deeply stored (such as back-up tapes or similar off-line electronic copies) soft copies of Confidential Information which may exist on the computer system of the receiving Party and which cannot be recovered without special measures, provided that such documents and/or information will be promptly deleted in the event of the restoration of such copies.

9.2.3 Paragraph 9.1 does not apply to Parties' copies of pleadings, evidence, skeleton arguments, transcripts, applications, draft orders, correspondence referred to at trial or in a hearing or submitted in these proceedings, as well as lawyer work product referring to Confidential Information, subject to continued compliance with the terms of this Order in respect of the Confidential Information contained within such documents.

9.2.4 Paragraph 9.1 does not apply to a Party in respect of the Confidential Information it provided.

10. UNAUTHORISED DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

In the event of any disclosure of Confidential Information other than in a manner authorised by this Order, including any unintentional or inadvertent disclosure, solicitors for the improperly disclosing Party shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify the improper recipient(s) and the solicitors for the Party or Parties which provided the Confidential Information in these Proceedings, and the improperly disclosing Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to further prevent unauthorised disclosure including for example using all reasonable endeavours to retrieve all copies of the Confidential Information from the improper recipient(s) thereof and secure the agreement of such recipient(s) not to further disseminate the Confidential Information in any form.

11. DISCLOSURE PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER

If at any time any Confidential Information is made the subject of a court disclosure or discovery order (or similar) anywhere in the world, the person upon whom the order is served shall immediately give written notice to the solicitors of the Party or Parties which produced the Confidential Information. If no Party which provided the Confidential Information in these proceedings takes steps to prevent the further disclosure of such Confidential Information within 10 working days of the date on which such written notice was given, the Party against whom the order was made may produce such Confidential Information but shall take all reasonable measures to have the Confidential Information treated in accordance with the terms of this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph applies only to a Party who is the recipient of Confidential Information provided in these proceedings and does not apply to the Party which provides the Confidential Information in these proceedings.

12. ENFORCEMENT OF THE ORDER, LIBERTY TO APPLY AND COSTS

- 12.1 In the event of any anticipated or actual breach of this Order, any Party may seek to enforce the terms of this Order.
- 12.2 In the event of any breach, or anticipated breach, of this Order which affects a Third Party Addressee, that Third Party Addressee shall be entitled to enforce its terms.
- 12.3 There shall be liberty to apply to vary the terms of this Order, which shall be on notice to any Party or Third Party Addressee, if appropriate.
- 12.4 Costs in the case.

13. NOTICES

3. 4. I will not disclose Outer Confidentiality Ring Information to any person who is not an Outer Confidentiality Ring Member, including by reading it out in open proceedings (except to the extent that I am aware of the same information from another document that does not constitute “Confidential Information” and that was not obtained in breach of this undertaking or of the Tribunal's Order).
5. I will use the Confidential Information only for the purpose of these proceedings and for the purpose of no other current or future proceedings or proposed proceedings, dispute, complaint, or other use whatsoever in any jurisdiction (except to the extent that I am aware of the same information from another document that does not constitute “Confidential Information” and that was not obtained in breach of this undertaking or of the Tribunal's Order).
